

Pablo Vargas
DDS, MSc, PhD

IAOP Councillor for Latin America and the Caribbean
Department of Oral Pathology – School of Dentistry of Piracicaba –
UNICAMP, São Paulo – Brazil

Dr Vargas is a dental graduate of the UNESP-Araraquara-Brazil and obtained a Master of Science and PhD titles from the UNICAMP-Piracicaba-Brazil in Oral Pathology. He was chairman of the post-graduate course of Oral Pathology-UNICAMP for 4 years (2000-2004). He was also president of the II International Congress of Dentistry of the UNICAMP, which was held in Piracicaba, Brazil in 2004. He was Honorary Senior Lecturer of the Department of Oral Pathology of the University of Sheffield-UK (2005-2007). He has been teaching Oral Pathology in the School of Dentistry of Piracicaba-UNICAMP. He is vice-chair of the Department of Oral Diagnosis-UNICAMP and a member of the International Association of Oral Pathologists (IAOP). He has authored or co-authored 1 chapter and 81 papers (55 indexed in PUBMED) on Oral Pathology and Medicine. He has been acting as reviewer of numerous international periodicals as Oral Oncology, Oral Diseases, Indian Journal of Cancer, Yonsei Medical Journal and Medicinal Oral Patologia Oral Cirurgia Oral. He is a diagnostic pathologist of oral lesions in Piracicaba and his main research fields are molecular pathology of salivary gland lesions, cysts and odontogenic tumours, and salivary gland involvement in AIDS patients.